HIGH PRICES DEMANDED FOR INFERIOR VEGETABLES.

Effect of the Prolonged Drought Plainly Discernible in Union Market Stalls-The Range of Prices Is Generally Higher Than Last Week - Demand for All Kinds of Fruit Is Heavy.

Prices current for vegetables and fruits at SHIPPED CASE GOODS. Union Market yesterday and on July 29 were: Cabbages
Sweet potatoes (old)
Sweet potatoes (new)
Turnips
String beans
Lettuce (home)
Potatoes
Tornatees
Horseradish
Spinach
Apples good supply and the quality good for this Radishes are very scarce, many dealers having no stocks. Ontons are small and inferior; so it is with new beets, green pep-pers and nearly everything now seasomable. Horseradish is in very limited supply and higher. The former 5-cent bottle now costs a dime at retail.

All pineapples are off in grade. It is almost impossible to get good ones, and they are very dear.

Fancy, large, home-cultivated mush Cucumbers
Lettuce
Summer squash rooms command 75c cents per pound and are scarce. Moser early grapes are going at 6 cents SHIPPED CRATE GOODS.

Moser early grapes are going at 6 cents per Dound, and at that sell readily.

The demand for all vegetables and fruits continues heavy and supplies are lower, and grades, generally speaking, are poorer than 1.50 at week.

The wide range in prices quoted is necessary to measure the difference in value of 4.00 the very poorest produce offered and that which the more nearly approaches the 1.25 standard in quality. The prolonged drought is the only cause assigned for the present conditions.

that its value would be greatly decreased by the location of a negro school in the vicinity. Mr. Powers offers to exchange a lot at Arlington and St. Louis avenues for the one owned by the board, on which they may erect the negro school building. Superintendent of Schools Soldan and the board's civil engineer stated to the board yesterday that they had visited the two lots, and the latter stated that the lot offered by Mr. Powers is even more valuable than the one owned by the board, but Mr. Powers has expressed a willingness to stand this loss.

The petition of Mr. Powers was referred to the president of the board, Superintendent Soldan and the chairman of the Finance Committee, with power to act.

The board approved the bid of F. Boeke, $4.583, for the improvement of the Compton School. The Rountree Construction Company, being the lowest bidder on the work to be done on the new negro portable school, will set the contract when the committee decides the lot question with Mr. Powers.
